

Mr George Goh

George Goh Ching Wah is a philanthropist, entrepreneur, diplomat and education advocate.

During his 41 years of entrepreneurship, he has owned over 100 companies across Asia Pacific, Europe and USA. He owned seven companies that were publicly listed on various countries' stock exchanges across Singapore, Australia and the United Kingdom by the age of 48. These are Ossia International Limited, Internet Technology Group Limited, United Envirotech Limited, Rebel Sport Limited, SGL Vietnam Development Limited, VGO Corporation Limited, and Pertama Holdings Limited, which trades under the trade name of "Harvey Norman". He has considerable business experiences in sole proprietorships, start-ups, e-commerce, venture capitalism, and franchising.

George was appointed the Singapore Ambassador to the Kingdom of Morocco in 2017. He also serves as an Advisor of the Moroccan Chamber of Commerce.

He co-founded Border Mission with his wife Lysa in 2014. In Singapore, Border Mission meets the needs of elderly cardboard collectors and provides care for people with disabilities. Border Mission serves poor communities in the Himalayan regions through education, medical and community care outreach.

He is a Council Member at the Singapore Red Cross Society and an Executive Board Member of the Presbyterian Community Services and Presbyterian Preschool Services Ltd. He is an advisor to the Puan Noor Aishah Intercultural Institute and served as a board member of the Creative Malay Arts and Culture.