

Tan Poh Hong

Ms Tan Poh Hong is currently an Adjunct Associate Professor in the School of Design and Environment in the National University of Singapore. She was the Chief Executive Officer of Agri-Food & Veterinary Authority (AVA) of Singapore from 2009 to 2017 and was responsible for the implementation of the organisation's policies and strategies.

Prior to her appointment at AVA, Ms Tan was the Deputy CEO of the Housing and Development Board (HDB) from 2004 to 2009 where she was responsible for the planning, development and management of HDB properties. Ms Tan also held various leadership positions in the HDB, including as a Director of Corporate Development. She joined HDB in 1981.