

DESIGN YOUR OWN STRESSBALL!

SPORTS EDITION

 Give Blood. Save Lives.
SINGAPORE

HOW TO PARTICIPATE?

1

Download or print out the dieline template and use your medium or software of choice to create your best sports-themed stress ball design.

2

Complete your entry by 19 June 2023 and email it to contest@redcross.sg, with the subject header 'Red Cross Sports Stress Ball Design Submission'.

3

Please give your full name, contact number, and rationale behind your design in the same email as well!

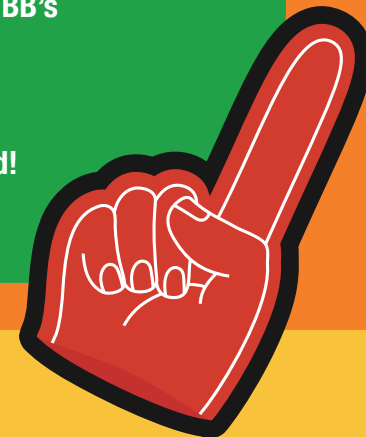

HOW TO WIN?

Out of all the entries received, eight finalists will be selected based on the originality, creativity, and rationale behind the design. These eight designs will be shared on BB's Instagram, @heybloodbuddy, for public voting between 23-27 June 2023.

Winning designs will be launched in 2024, so be sure to follow BB to stay updated! Please note that terms & conditions apply.

Terms & Conditions:

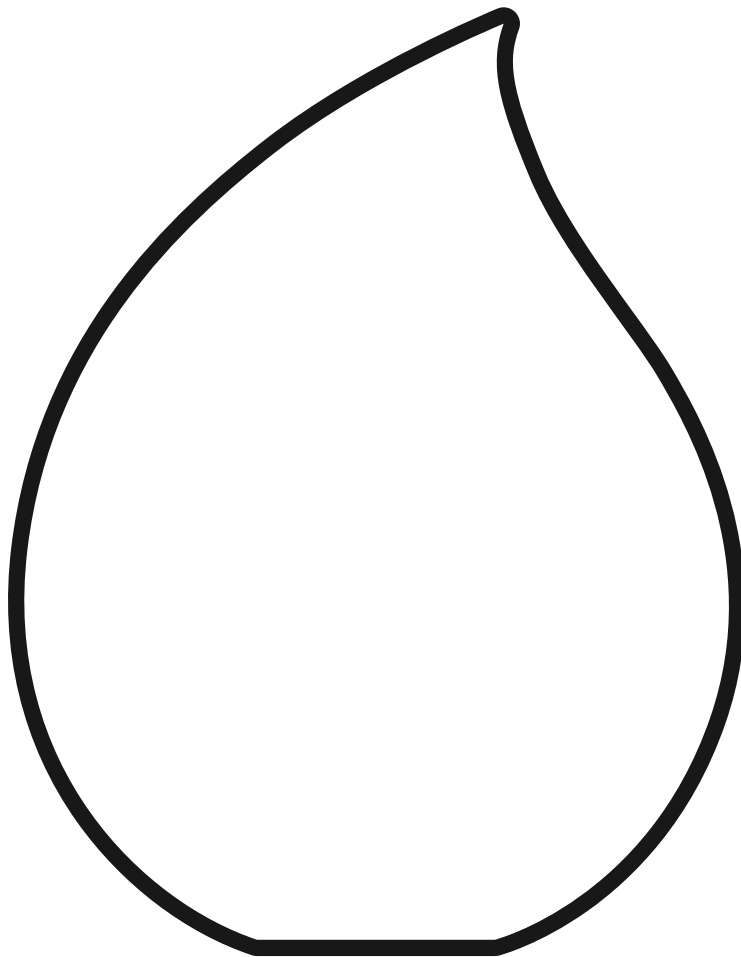

1. All participants must be residents of Singapore and at least 16 years of age.
2. Entries with designs that have been used in past years will not be considered and will be disqualified.
3. We reserve the right to make any necessary adjustments or modifications to the winning designs in order to ensure their successful production.
4. No designs should include images, designs, or references to any sports celebrities or public figures, and any such design will be disqualified.
